

Bizry Claims U.S. Plotted His Death

Syria Takes Accusation To U.N.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Maj. Gen. Afif Bizry, new army chief of staff, charged Tuesday he was marked for assassination in a plot he said the United States directed against the Syrian government.

At the same time Syria told the United Nations the United States conspired to overthrow the Damascus government but the Syrians refrained from asking for any U.N. action.

In the story told here Bizry said his chief staff officers also were marked for death. The soft-spoken, 43-year-old commander made his appearance at an interview arranged for a group of Western newsmen.

"They were to send gangsters to our houses to kill us," Bizry said. "They were gangsters made in America."

Chills Stone Mastermind
The general declared Howard E. Stone, the U.S. Embassy's second secretary for political affairs, was the mastermind. Stone was one of three U.S. diplomats ousted from Syria last week.

Besides himself, Bizry said, the targets included Brig. Amin Nufoury, the new deputy chief of staff, and Col. Abdul Hamid Sarraj, the army's powerful intelligence chief.

"The prime purpose was to kill staff officers who opposed American policy," Bizry said. "They wanted the head of every honest man. We have the evidence."

Bizry told his story shortly after Syria instructed its U.N. delegation to accuse the United States before the Security Council of promoting the purported conspiracy to unseat President Shukri Kuwaili's leftist regime.

Father Of Six Blows Up Himself, Wife, One Child

ST. HYACINTHE, Que. (AP)—A 37-year-old father of six blew up himself, his wife and one of his children Tuesday in what police described as a frenzy of fear of an impending mental examination.

Police said the man ignited his home after seeking it with naphtha. Two of his other children were injured in the blast and fire. Authorities identified the dead as Georges Allard, his wife, Lucille, 34, and a son, Claude, 12.

Two constables had approached Allard's home Tuesday morning to take him in custody pending a mental examination. They reported that Allard, in a state of agitation and fear, threatened to kill himself and his family if they came closer. The constables left but returned four hours later and saw the house wrecked by an explosion and fire.

Three of the children were absent from the house at the time.

Hoffa Tells Probers Of Borrowing From Unionists Or Locals

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa testified Tuesday he has borrowed around $120,000 since 1952 and has invested in such things as girls' camp, a heavyweight boxer and a brewery.

He gave the testimony to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, which showed much curiosity about his finances.

Most of the loans making up the total were shown as having come from fellow unionists or locals in the Teamsters Union, some from men identified by committee counsel as men with criminal records, and some from employers who had dealings with the union.

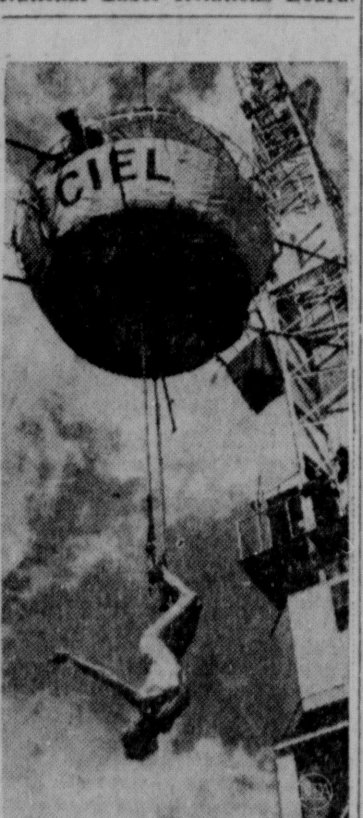

Strike Continues To Tie Up All Detroit Papers

DETROIT (AP)—Publishers of Detroit's three newspapers failed Tuesday in their efforts to obtain a court order that would permit resumption of publication.

The big dailies, numbering some 1,300,000 readers in the Detroit area, have been closed since Saturday by a labor dispute of the International Mailers' Union at the Detroit News, The Detroit Times and the Free Press suspended publication under a publishers' agreement that a strike against one is a strike against all.

The Detroit Newspaper Publishers Assn., representing all three newspapers, sought to end the dispute by applying for a circuit court injunction against the Mailers Union and the Teamsters Union to prevent them from interfering with publication.

Circuit Judge Horace W. Gilmore ruled Tuesday that the state courts of Michigan lack jurisdiction unless there is proof of violence. The judge said the publishers and the union should settle their differences before the National Labor Relations Board.

Violence Breaks Out At Negro's Home, Officer Hit By Rock

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A Bristol Township police sergeant was felled by a rock Tuesday night and was whisked to a hospital as violence broke out again outside the home of the first Negro family in this 15,000 home residential community.

The rock was tossed as an unruly crowd estimated by State Police Lt. J. M. Wicker at about 400, gathered outside the ranch style home of William Myers. The thrower of the rock was unidentified.

Sgt. Tom Stewart was struck on the head, falling to the ground with blood gushing from his right ear.

The rock throw was the first overt act of a noisy cat-calling crowd gathered for the second straight night in a symbol of protest against the Negro family. Tuesday night the gathering faced a reinforced cordon of state and local police.

The large contingent of state and local police—taunted, and jeered by the crowd—maintained a cautious watch on streets near the house. Only residents and newsmen were allowed in the Dogwood Hollow section of this sprawling community.

The crowd assembled at one of the three entrances to the section about two blocks from the Myers' home. The Negro's house was brightly lit but the shades were drawn. The noise of the crowd could be heard plainly at the home.

The arrival Monday of Myers, his wife, and youngest of three children at their newly purchased $12,150 residence, set off several demonstrations in the neighborhood.

Three times state troopers pushed and prodded a jeering crowd of 300 from the vicinity of the Myers' home in a series of incidents in which stones were thrown at the officers and newspaper people. One man was arrested and another taken into protective custody.

Red Star Calls U.S. Leathernecks Brainwashed Pros

MOSCOW (AP)—Never let it be said, Red Star thundered Tuesday, that the U.S. Marines are heroes. It contended they're nothing but a bunch of brainwashed old pros who go around picking on poor defenseless little countries.

The official newspaper of the Ministry of Defense also told its readers that American Marines have a bad reputation; their brains have been washed by "ideological preparation" which makes them politically unreliable; they have low instincts, a thirst for grabbing and the spirit of hatred.

No reason was given why Red Star chose to print an article by T. Belashchenko on the Marines. "They earned a bad reputation a long time ago," he wrote. "The Marines were a striking force in predatory wars against weak countries and small nations and in suppressing progressive movements in the United States."

Explosions Rip New Oil Tanker

MARSEILLE, France (AP)—Two explosions ripped through the huge oil tanker Tuesday and set the vessel aflame.

Several casualties were reported and the chief officer was listed as missing. The 40,000-ton tanker, owned by the Nirechos group and flying the Liberian flag, was taken in tow and is expected to reach Marseille early Thursday.

A late message received here did not indicate whether the fire had been put out.

Reports from Casablanca and the Nirechos' offices in London indicated most of the crew of 81 was picked up by rescue ships. A company spokesman said nine crewmen remained aboard to handle the ship when taken in tow. He said there were then two casualties, but did not give the number.

The tanker was en route from Southampton, England, to the Persian Gulf to take on crude oil. Her crew was made up of Greek officers and Indian crewmen.

A report from Gibraltar said the explosions erupted in the engine room as the tanker was proceeding 40 miles east of Gibraltar.

RESCUE 4 MOUNTAIN CLIMBERS, 2 MISSING

TRENT, Italy (AP)—Four climbers were rescued Tuesday from the snow and ice of Marmolada Peak in the Dolomites.

The Alpineists said five Italian climbers, who were feared lost when a sudden snowstorm swept the mountain, had probably made their way to the summit and descended safely on the other side. The rescued were identified as two Germans and two Italians.

In the last week, since word got out that the family had purchased the $12,150 ranch type home in this 5-year-old planned community of 60,000 people, at least nine persons have been arrested on a variety of minor charges. Earlier in the week there were picket lines, mass protest rallies on nearby lawns and, on one occasion, stones hurled through the picture window of the Myers' residence. (Continued On Page Seven)

Ike Gets Bill Authorizing U.S. Build A-Plants

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress Tuesday passed a bill authorizing a program of government-built atomic power reactors. The program, opposed by the Eisenhower administration, was included in a 352-million-dollar atomic energy construction bill.

This measure was sent to President Eisenhower by voice votes of both the House and Senate. The House, which had refused earlier to approve the reactor program, voted first.

Senate Democrats sponsored the reactor plan, arguing it was needed to keep this country abreast of others in developing atomic energy as a source of power.

Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission resisted the program and Republicans contended Democrats were trying to put the government into the power business.

The House at first rejected the Senate-approved plan but accepted a scaled-down version in the compromise measure passed today.

In working out the compromise, Republicans succeeded in slicing $7 million dollars from the 339 million originally authorized by the Senate.

Actual funds for the work authorized must be voted later in separate legislation.

Atoms-For-Peace Agency Bill Goes To White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress Tuesday knocked down the final barrier to U.S. participation in the International Atomic Energy Agency. It also gave itself a veto over U.S. contributions of nuclear materials to the atoms-for-peace agency.

The House passed by voice vote and sent to President Eisenhower a bill to implement this country's participation in IAEA—an outgrowth of the President's 1953 atoms-for-peace speech to the United Nations.

A treaty taking the United States into the IAEA was ratified by the Senate, but this couldn't take full effect without the implementing legislation passed Tuesday.

The bill is a compromise of separate measures. The Senate passed a bill Monday soon after representatives of the House agreed to let Congress limit presidential authority to contribute nuclear materials to the agency.

This restriction was sponsored by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio). It was made a part of the original Senate bill but the House, heeding administration objections, had voted it down.

Tuesday the House went along with minor revisions worked out in the compromise sessions.

The amendment would require congressional approval of any U.S. contributions of nuclear materials to IAEA or to the Western European atomic group, known as Euratom.

ILLINOIS CROPS NEED RAIN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Corn, soybeans and pastures in western districts of Illinois show some deterioration from lack of moisture. The State-Federal Agriculture Department said Tuesday.

Damage will become more severe and widespread if rains are not received soon.

Forty-two of the crop correspondents report a shortage of moisture. However, it is no drier than average for this date.

Corn has tasseled in the north. A little over half the corn is in the roasting ear stage. Eighty-five per cent of the soybeans have bloomed.

Doctor Rides Balloon To Record 102,000 Feet

In Air For 32 Hours

ELLENDALE, N. D. (AP)—Appearing drowsy but happy, an Air Force doctor-pilot landed safely late Tuesday near here, after riding the gondola of a plastic balloon to an estimated record 102,000 feet in his 32 hours of exploring outer space.

Asked his most exciting experience, Maj. David G. Simons said as he stepped from the gondola: "Getting back to earth."

Simons said it was nice to see the sun's rays diffused by the world's atmosphere. "I've been riding around in a sky that was purple black, even in daytime, and then it got darker at night."

Lands At 5:28 P.M.
Simons, ordered to start down at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday, finally brought the giant polyethylene bag down on the shores of Elm Lake at 5:28 p. m. The lake is on the North Dakota-South Dakota border about 10 miles south-west of Ellendale.

Ground winds shifted the balloon about precariously during Simons' nine-hour battle to get the gondola and its cargo of instruments safely down.

Observers said that by a masterful use of his ballast, Simons touched the ground gently. He suffered a slight cut on the chin when the gondola tipped over before the balloon could be cut loose.

Stars Don't Twinkle
"You can tell the folks that, up high, the stars don't twinkle, they just burn," he said in a brief interview. Simons almost immediately was led to a waiting helicopter and whisked away to an unknown destination.

Radar trackers estimated the balloon hit the record 102,000 foot level over Wahpeton, N. D. early today. Confirmation will await calibration of instruments the balloon carried.

To Explode Bag
Immediately after the landing, members of the ground crew cut loose the plastic bag and it soared skyward. They said it would again go up to 100,000 feet where a mechanical device would explode it into small fragments.

The balloon covered about 400 air miles in the 32 hours. Ground parties immediately picked up the gondola and its cargo, which included many photographs Simons took.

At one time Monday, from over Brainerd, Minn., he reported being able to see the western shore of Lake Michigan.

Greeted By Col. Stapp
One of the first to greet him was Col. John T. Stapp, rocket sled expert and project officer for the "Man High" operation. He paid tribute to Simons' navigation pointing out that it required able handling of ballast to bring the balloon down through sometimes precarious ground currents.

The 102,000 foot altitude, if confirmed, would be 6,000 feet higher than Capt. Joseph Kittinger rose in June, while testing the equipment Simons used. There were other unconfirmed reports that the 102,000 foot height had been exceeded.

Foreign Aid Program Hits Snag: Demos Say $12 Billion Available

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's foreign aid program ran into new trouble Tuesday. Congressional Democrats claimed 12 billion dollars is available for overseas aid—and they demanded to know why more money is needed.

To get the administration's reply, the Senate Appropriations Committee summoned foreign aid experts to a special hearing Wednesday. Until this development, the committee had been expected to act Tuesday on administration plans for restoration of a hefty House cut in new aid funds.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas told a reporter the Appropriations Committee has been told the administration has 12 billion dollars available for the aid program.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, disputed this. "There is no 12 billion dollars available," he said.

Knowland said President Eisenhower is "quite hopeful" the Senate will restore much of the $809,650,000 which the House last week chopped from Eisenhower's request for new aid money.

The House voted the President 2½ billion dollars instead of the 3½ billion he asked.

Chairman Hayden (D-Ariz.) said the Senate Appropriations Committee (Continued On Page Seven)

Steel Union Says Wage Increases Not Inflationary

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union said Tuesday wage increases negotiated for its members are not inflationary—that, to the contrary, there might be economic disaster without them.

A union spokesman told the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee that the steel industry has seized on the wage boosts as a chance to make the union the scapegoat for what he called exorbitant price increases.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on the $6-a-ton steel price increase that went into effect July 1. Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U. S. Steel Corp., has testified the hike resulted from a simultaneous wage boost of 15½ cents an hour and other cost increases.

Report Martha, Alfred Stern, Renounce U.S. Citizenship

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said Tuesday it is looking into reports that Martha Dodd Stern and her husband have renounced their American citizenship. They have been accused of being members of a Soviet spy ring. Mrs. Stern, daughter of the late U. S. ambassador to Germany, William E. Dodd, is in Communist Czechoslovakia with her millionaire husband, Alfred K. Stern, and 12-year-old son.

A State Department spokesman said he could neither confirm nor deny reports that the Sterns renounced their U. S. citizenship in Mexico City and then acquired Paraguayan passports.

State Department records show Mrs. Stern obtained her last American passport in 1951. It came due for renewal in 1953, but no renewal request was recorded. Her son was covered by the 1951 passport.

The records also show Stern last got an American passport in 1942 and applied for a passport in 1951 but was refused.

The records show both applied for American passports in February 1955 at the American Embassy in Moscow.

However, officials said, they failed to respond to a request to sign affidavits vowing they had no affiliation with the Communist party and so were not issued passports.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities announced last Saturday it had received testimony from Borros Morros counterspy for the FBI, that the Sterns were members of a Soviet espionage ring.

A spokesman for the U. S. Embassy in Prague reported in Vienna Tuesday the Sterns arrived in Prague July 21 and that Stern insists they are not fugitives, merely tourists.

Couple Loses Adoption Fight For Child Because Of Religion

BALTIMORE (AP)—"It was like burying my own child," Mrs. Frank Frantum sobbed Tuesday after giving up the 2-year-old youngster—Burton—she lost in an adoption battle.

She had planted one last kiss on his cheek. Then the wide-eyed boy, with a box of toys and a kitten, walked out of the Frantum house, clinging to the hand of a social worker.

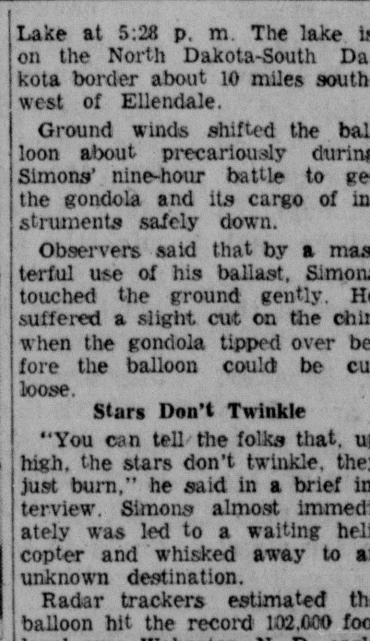

He was on his way to his new parents, a Navy lieutenant and his wife at Patuxent, Md., by order of the state.

The state's highest court—the Court of Appeals—had ruled that the Frantums, who nursed the boy back to health from fragile infancy, must give him up. Department of Welfare officials had turned down their request to adopt Burton because they were not Roman Catholics and were middle aged.

The mother, whose name was kept private as is the department's custom, had asked that the boy be raised a Roman Catholic.

The Frantums are Lutherans. He is 35 and she 47. Frantum, a retired Marine, works for a Baltimore contractor.

In their place, the Welfare Department found more "suitable adoptive parents"—Navy Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth Adams of St. Mary's County. They are Roman Catholic.

No Indictments Made In Indiana Highway Scandal

CROWN POINT, Ind. (AP)—The Lake County grand jury reported no indictments Tuesday in its investigation of reported highway right-of-way profiteering by three international officers of the Carpenters Union.

Prosecutor Metro Holovachka gave lack of jurisdiction as the reason for no indictments. He also reported that Frank M. Chapman, the union's general secretary, has given up $78,416 in profit he made on land sold to the State Highway Department.

Holovachka said Chapman turned over a check for $74,581 through his attorney last Friday and the remainder in cash, also through his attorney Tuesday morning.

Chapman did not appear before the grand jury, even though a subpoena had been issued for him to appear Monday. Also absent were Maurice Hutcheson, the union's president; O. William Bialer its second vice president; Virgil W. (Red) Smith, former State Highway Commission chairman, and Nile Teverbaugh, right-of-way director under Smith.

The convention resolution also urged delegates, representing some 450 state and local teacher unions, to work for a maximum salary of $12,000 in eight yearly steps for bachelor degree holders.

Previous minimum and maximum wage proposals were $5,000 and $10,000, respectively.

The convention did not offer any salary scale level for masters degree recipients. However, the resolution said a teacher with a masters degree should be compensated "with other levels of training in an equitable ratio."

In other convention business, endorsement of teacher tenure laws in 16 states not having them was strongly recommended.

TINY TRANSPORT

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Painted on the back of the tiny car used for deliveries by the Dan Fitzgerald Pharmacy is the sign: "Wee deliver."

She said she had told welfare officials she was willing to become a Catholic and promised to raise the boy as one if they'd let her keep him.

The gray-haired woman, who has a married daughter, said Burton had required almost 24-hour attention. He was born at City Hospitals and spent eight weeks there with a fractured left arm and suffering from anemia, she added.

She explained she took the baby in when he was too sick to be placed for adoption by Department of Welfare standards.

"When he was brought to me on the 31st of December, 1955, he was suffering from a respiratory condition. I have spent many nights up with the child nursing him back to health," she said.

"He will not be a well child if he remains away from me. They are harming the child."

The Frantums fought for Burton through the Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals. They have vowed they will carry the battle to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Editorial Comment

The Special Session Threat

President Eisenhower for the most part has had better fortune in pressing his foreign programs than on the domestic front. Perhaps mindful of that fact, he has now put Congress on notice that if it slices deeply into new foreign aid appropriations he may summon the lawmakers this fall for a special session to try for more money.

Originally this year foreign aid seemed headed for a very bad time. Then the President swung into action and used both pressure and persuasion to stir public support of his program.

Largely he succeeded, though the foreign aid authorization bill he finally signed—for $3,367,000,000—was some 500 million dollars short of the sum he asked for in May.

Mr. Eisenhower knew, however, that when Congress got around to voting the actual money for this aid it would chop a good deal more off the total. That has been the custom in handling foreign assistance for many years. The appropriations committees draw the purse strings tighter than the authorization bill recommends.

Because he has already lost 500 million dollars of his desired goal, the President is anxious this year to hold the rest. Hence his warning that if Congress appropriates less than the authorized total he might call the legislators back and compel them to re-examine the matter.

Congress doesn't like this kind of pressure and could be sternly resistant. The House vote of 252-130 to slash $809,650,000 below what the President called a rock-bound minimum might be a reflection of this resentment against pressure. On the other hand, the lawmakers don't like the exposure of a special session, where they are so obviously on the spot.

It is the first time Mr. Eisenhower has resorted to this tactic, which President Truman employed in his regime with much fanfare. It will be interesting to see what happens if Ike is forced to execute this strategy.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I no longer have a lifetime to look forward to and take care of. At the most, it is 20 or 25 years. So now I can afford to take chances."

This, Erich Maria Remarque reasons, is why he agreed to write the screen play for his book, "A Time to Love and a Time to Die," and act in it, too. At latest report, the film is being called "there's a time to love"—don't ask why.

I came across the famed novelist, handsome at 59, as he had finished the last pages of the screen play and was cleaning out his desk.

He proved to be an excellent talker. It is easy to see how his charm has fascinated such famous women as Marlene Dietrich, Greta Garbo and Paulette Goddard.

About his screen writing—"This is another departure for me. The first was last year when I went to Berlin to open my first play, 'The Last Station'."

"Before we opened, the cast came and asked me what they should do if the audience started throwing stones. We just didn't know what they would do. Here was a story of the last days of Berlin before the fall of Hitler. There were scenes of the rape of women and we knew there would be women in the audience who had been through such things. How would they react?"

"The play had 35 curtain calls. It was a great hit and encouraged me to attempt this screen play."

Another reason for the film project: To escape the humid New York summer. Universal-International came up with the deal at just the right time.

It's the first time in 30 years he has worked in an office, he remarked. The last was when he edited a sports car magazine in Germany. He took time out from his work to write a novel, "All Quiet on the Western Front."

Writing time: five weeks.

Some of the best publishing minds turned it down before it was finally printed and became a runaway bestseller. He has had the supreme satisfaction of an author in seeing that happen with two more of his books.

His visits—she has been here before—around town, compared to those of so many of the famous, she won't be asking for a loan, guided missiles, atomic sub secrets or the commitment of U. S. troops to some remote place on the globe.

This'll be a relief to Ike, her host, too. When some foreign potentate mixes calling with favor-seeking the President has to have endless briefings to make sure he doesn't promise the wrong thing. Then there's always that uncomfortable meeting when the visitor makes his pitch and Ike has to say no, or offer something less.

THE QUEEN'S VISIT also always produces some juicy protocol problem which keeps the town talking for weeks. Remember those wonderful debates over whether women should curtsy when presented to the Queen, remove their gloves when shaking hands?

This visit has a pretty good protocol problem cooking already. And there will probably be a couple more before she arrives. British Ambassador Sir Harold Caccia finds himself in the center of this one.

He's the Queen's personal representative in Washington and he should naturally be at her side during the whole visit.

His trouble is that seven other ambassadors from the 11 British Commonwealth countries were assigned to Washington before him. That makes him eighth in seniority.

The 11 Commonwealth envoys will be in on every function from the Queen's reception at the airport to her attendance at a Maryland University football game. The problem is how to spot them in receiving lines and at dinners. Sir Harold should be at the Queen's side. But his seniority rating rules this out.

FOR EXAMPLE, If the seniority rule is strictly observed at the formal White House dinner for the Queen and her husband, Sir Harold will be seated so far from the royal pair he'd have to use a public address system to make conversation with them.

Sir Percy Spender, the Australian Ambassador, has top seniority among the 11. He'd probably swap places with Sir Harold. But the other six ambassadors don't want to go along with this. They can't be shoved around arbitrarily.

This may not strike everyone as a very serious matter, but it has State Department protocol expert Victor Purse in a lather. He's the gent who got King Saud in and out of town, through a fantastic set of protocol problems, without offending the King. And Vic rates this one as tough as any in connection with Saud's visit.

Since the last visit of the royal couple, the Queen's husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, has been made a prince.

BEFORE THIS WAS DONE the Duke always walked three paces behind his wife. The new rank permits him to follow a little closer, but not quite at her side.

The curtsy thing is settled. American women don't have to curtsy to the Queen here. Everyone agrees this is O.K. But there are always some U. S. ladies who like to give it the full treatment when greeting the Queen, which is rather dangerous.

In England they're used to all this curtsy stuff. Here, they're rusty at it and there's always the danger of tipping over in the middle of one. This happened three times during the Queen's last visit. It was a little embarrassing but the Queen didn't bat an eye.

Queen's Visit May Perk Up Capitals' Jaded Partying

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The visit of England's Queen Elizabeth II here in mid-October is going to be a nice, mutually beneficial affair.

What with Lord Altrincham's criticisms of the Queen's speech-making and her royal household, it's time for her to duck out of London for a while. When she gets back all will probably be forgotten.

Undoubtedly her sister Margaret will be dating some new eligible blue-blood and occupying the news spotlight.

From our town's point of view it has been a hot, dry, drab summer and we need something like the Queen's visit to perk up our jaded party-going. There has been a parade of some high-ranking foreign brass through here the past year. But there's nothing that quite touches an official visit from Her Majesty.

Her visits—she has been here before—around town, compared to those of so many of the famous, she won't be asking for a loan, guided missiles, atomic sub secrets or the commitment of U. S. troops to some remote place on the globe.

This'll be a relief to Ike, her host, too. When some foreign potentate mixes calling with favor-seeking the President has to have endless briefings to make sure he doesn't promise the wrong thing. Then there's always that uncomfortable meeting when the visitor makes his pitch and Ike has to say no, or offer something less.

THE QUEEN'S VISIT also always produces some juicy protocol problem which keeps the town talking for weeks. Remember those wonderful debates over whether women should curtsy when presented to the Queen, remove their gloves when shaking hands?

And there's a reason: If the government used the 1954 act against the party it might get so tangled up with what it is trying to do to the party under a previous act, passed in 1950, that all its long efforts under the 1950 law might be wrecked.

In 1950 Congress passed the Communist Control Act, which called for forcing the party to register as a Russian agent and reveal its membership. In addition, the law imposed a whole series of prohibitions and penalties on party members.

Before any of those things could happen, these steps would have to be taken:

The government would have to charge the party—before the Subversive Activities Control Board—with being a Russian agent. (The government did.)

The SACB would have to hold hearings to let the party answer the charges. (The board did and the hearings lasted months.) Then the board would have to rule the party was truly a Moscow tool. (It did.)

Still nothing could happen until the party sought through appeals declared invalid and the act itself ruled unconstitutional. (The party carried its fight to the courts.)

This whole chain of events began seven years ago, shortly after the 1950 act was passed. The case has now been in the courts for years, and it may take more years before there is a final decision from the Supreme Court.

But if now, while the test of the 1950 act is pending, the government began doing some of the other things to the party called for by the 1954 act, the Communists might, and no doubt would do this:

They might try, by legal arguments about persecution, to get the courts to throw out all the government has been trying to do under the 1950 law.

The 1954 act in large part makes additions, or amendments, to the 1950 act. The government has thought it safe to use only one of them, one which lets it move against Communist-infiltrated unions.

The government has started action—also before the SACB—on two unions: the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America; and the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers.

But—even there the government is in knots. Before anything comes of its case against the two unions, the courts will have to uphold what the SACB has already done under the 1950 act.

If the courts finally knock out the 1950 act, the SACB itself will be knocked out and anything it ruled now about the two unions mentioned above wouldn't count any more.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Today is the third anniversary of a law which the government has treated like poison-ivy. It's stayed away from it almost completely.

This week a government lawyer, looking at a copy of the 1954 act on his desk, said: "From the way this law was put together, I think members of Congress must have written it on the back of match-boxes."

Congress started out that year with talk of outlawing the Communist party by making membership in it a crime. Realizing this might not stand up in court, the lawmakers wound up weaseling with a statement which merely said: "Therefore, the Communist party should be outlawed."

It sounded big but didn't mean anything because it didn't do any outlawing.

This act of three years ago did attempt to say the party should be denied the "rights, privileges and immunities" enjoyed by legal organizations. In three years what rights, privileges and immunities has the party lost?

None, so far as this writer could find. For example: it was thought in 1954 the party might, under the new law, be denied the use of the mails for its newspaper, the Daily Worker.

But the Post Office has taken no action of any kind against the party. Nor could this writer find any other government agency which had taken action under the 1954 act against the party.

And there's a reason: If the government used the 1954 act against the party it might get so tangled up with what it is trying to do to the party under a previous act, passed in 1950, that all its long efforts under the 1950 law might be wrecked.

In 1950 Congress passed the Communist Control Act, which called for forcing the party to register as a Russian agent and reveal its membership. In addition, the law imposed a whole series of prohibitions and penalties on party members.

This whole chain of events began seven years ago, shortly after the 1950 act was passed. The case has now been in the courts for years, and it may take more years before there is a final decision from the Supreme Court.

THE KEY to the most famous prison in the world, the French Bastille—a prison which no longer exists—is kept in George Washington's home at Mount Vernon, Virginia. The great iron key was presented to Washington in 1790 by the French minister as a gift from the French people, to show they too had cast off the rule of their king. The fall of the Bastille, on July 14, 1790, marked the beginning of the French Revolution.

The chances for electing the House (in 1958), I think, are excellent. In the Senate it is a quite tough fight.

I was struck by his (new U.S. ambassador to Ceylon Matthew H. Glick) unassuming ways and his earnestness to promote good relations between our two nations.

Fracture Usually Means Long Disability Period

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Falls, auto accidents and skiing are among the many causes for broken bones. A person with a broken bone should not move or be moved except with great care, as the fracture may be made worse by motion. Splinting with a board or some other rigid object is advisable before moving.

If a person fractures the lower leg while wearing high boots, the boots should not be taken off until after reaching the hospital, as the boot itself serves as a sort of splint. The proper splinting and moving of a patient who has sustained a fracture may make a great deal of difference in the setting of the fracture and in the time it takes to heal.

ONCE A PERSON who has a fracture has been brought to the hospital, skilled care is important. X-ray films must be taken to show just where the fracture is and the position of the fragments. To do this, the X-ray films often have to be "shot" from different angles.

If the two parts of bone can be brought together in good position, then healing should take place easily, especially in younger people. When the fragments are brought in proper position, the parts must be kept from moving to give the bone a chance to grow together. This rest is generally accomplished by using a plaster-of-paris cast.

SOMETIMES IT IS difficult to put the fragments back where they will heal properly and in good position.

Walker-Edsel New Dealership Here

The Edsel-Ford Motor Company's new medium-priced car to be introduced on Sept. 4—will be sold and serviced through Walker-Edsel, 218 West Court, Jacksonville, which today was announced as an authorized Edsel dealership by A. E. Jacobsen, St. Louis district sales manager for Edsel Division.

Plans for a grand opening will be announced soon by Howard Walker, president, and Hayden Walker, vice president, of the new Edsel dealership. They have been in the automobile business in Jacksonville for 17 years. Taylor Rowe is the general manager of Walker-Edsel.

The dealership facilities, which have a total floor space of more than 8000 square feet, include a showroom area directed by Wendell Pettifish, sales manager, and a fully equipped service department headed by Herb Glancy. The new dealership also will operate a used car department at 1110 West Morton.

Ford Motor Company has invested $250 million to introduce the new Edsel, Mr. Jacobsen said. The new car—in four series and 18 models—will be marketed initially through an organization of 1200 to 1500 dealers. Eventually, Edsel dealers will number between 2500 and 3000.

Behind the new dealership organization is an Edsel field force of five regional and 24 district sales offices. Home offices for the Edsel Division are in Dearborn, Mich.

To Test 16 Parking Meters 60 Days In Dunlap Court Area

Sixteen Park-O-Meters will be installed on Dunlap Court between Morgan street and West College avenue, on a 60 day trial basis.

These will be the first of their kind to be used in Jacksonville. The city now has nearly 600 Dual meters in use. "You can try them out for 60 days and it won't cost you a penny," C. H. Thompson, factory representative of Park-O-Meter, told the city council Monday night.

"You keep all the revenue during that time. We will install the meters without cost to the city. If you don't like them after a 60 day trial, we will take them out without any obligation to the city."

Alderman Kelly of the highway committee announced earlier in the meeting that the city is in the market for new meters in an area on Dunlap Court that has been developed commercially. He said the Dual Meter company had quoted a base price of $56.50 less five per cent.

All Dual Meters Now
Dual meters were installed some years ago on the streets, and the same make was installed when the two off-street parking lots were constructed. Thompson said it was the third time his company has offered to install meters here.

He quoted a price of approximately $53.80 for each meter, stating that his company is the originator of the parking meter, which is manufactured at Oklahoma City, Okla.

Alderman Goodey moved, seconded by Alderman Tribble, that the company be permitted to install 16 meters on a trial basis. The council passed the resolution with Alderman Clarence Souza voting "No."

Says Houses Discolored
The unexplained discoloration of several houses on East College avenue, where white paint has turned to brown, was brought to attention of the council by Alderman Fitzsimmons. He said some persons have expressed opinion that the condition is due to use of chlorination machinery at the south side disposal plant.

Alderman Brune of the sewer committee said he has consulted the Illinois Department of Public Health, and was assured that use of chlorine would not cause discoloration of paint. Mayor DuBois and W. O. Randall, superintendent of utilities, also discounted the theory.

City Clerk Phillips said his house on West Beecher avenue had become discolored at times, but that it was due to rain while dust was in the air.

The clerk read a letter from C. W. Klatson, chief sanitary engineer of the state health department, approving plans and specification for water main extensions on West Morton and Grand avenues.

A letter from William R. Deutsch was read, relative to connection of his property with a proposed sanitary sewer in the Meand avenue area. The mayor suggested that the water and sewer committees confer with Mr. Deutsch.

Completion of the new roof on the city hall was called to attention by Alderman Scott. To Attend Peoria Conference
Mayor DuBois informed the council that a conference will be held Aug. 28 and 29 for members of city commissions to discuss changes in law effective next Jan. 1, regarding fire departments, most of which in Illinois will be obligated to add more

Boyish-Looking Man Will Argue Girard Case

By FRED SAITO
MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—A boyish-looking young man with a well-earned reputation as a fence will argue Japan's case against Specialist 3. C. William S. Girard in his trial on charges of shooting down a Japanese woman on a target range.

Yoshiro Konawa, 35, a soft-spoken man of 5 feet 2, is rated the most brilliant of eight young prosecutors assigned by the justice ministry to this rural district court. He also is the fiercest swordsman in the province and regularly cuts down husky policemen in exhibition duels.

Konawa, apparently unconcerned about his key role in the sensational trial which opens next Monday, works on his case daily with Kaname Watanabe, 34, the chief district prosecutor.

Court observers and newsmen assigned here call Watanabe a "man of the greatest caliber" and a man headed for the summit of Japan's judiciary system. He will not appear in court but will mastermind the prosecution.

Konawa, who was associate prosecutor in another widely-publicized trial involving Americans, is well versed in international law and the complicated status of forces agreement between Japan and the United States.

Friends say he has steadfastly insisted on Japan's right to try Girard since Mrs. Naka Sakai died on a U.S. military firing range last Jan. 30 with an empty cartridge case fired from a grenade launcher embedded in her back.

Konawa was associated prosecutor in the trial of four American soldiers involved in what became to be known internationally as the "Maebashi pinball riot." Several Japanese policemen were injured in quelling a street fight which began in a Maebashi pachinko (pinball) parlor. The soldiers were convicted and sentenced to prison terms of three to six months, but all sentences were suspended.

Unofficial reports credit Konawa with quashing plans for an appeal with this acid comment:

"It was a shame that sober Japanese policemen were beaten and injured by a bunch of drunken Americans."

Watanabe, a former chief criminal prosecutor in the Tokyo higher court, was transferred to Maebashi early this year. The son of a successful Tokyo lawyer, Watanabe is tall and slender, every inch the Japanese gentleman. He looks much younger than his 34 years and loves to play baseball on the prosecutor's team here.

Young Konawa, incidentally, is the team's star pitcher and has a batting average of over .300.

Watanabe has assigned his deputy, Kikuchi Sugimoto, 48, as Konawa's associate in the Girard trial—an unusual move in the hierarchy-conscious Japanese judicial system.

SENATORS VOTE MILLION FOR NEW OFFICE FURNISHINGS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted one million dollars Monday for furniture and furnishings for its new office building.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) tried vainly to cut the amount in half. He protested that "we will be exposing ourselves to grave criticism if we vote ourselves a million dollars for new furniture when the furniture we already have is adequate."

But Sen. Chavez (D-N.M.), chairman of the Senate Office Building Commission, said that if the old furniture in the present building is moved to the new building, it will have to be replaced in the present building.

Chavez and others said the equipping of a cafeteria and the furnishing of committee rooms and even a classroom for Senate pages were included in the cost estimates.

How to help your children make higher grades

Here's a formula that can help your children to do well in school.

First, establish a pleasant place for regular study. Private if possible, to prevent interruptions. Second, be sure to provide proper light. Good lighting protects young eyes from tiring glare, and from harmful contrasts and shadows. It encourages study, aids concentration, makes homework easier.

Study lamps should furnish the right amount of light, and also proper light diffusion. Lamps with a correct reflector bowl, or that use a type R-40 bulb, cover the work area with soft, glare-free light. Shades with light-colored linings further increase the amount of soft light. Upward illumination eliminates eye-straining dark shadows in the room.

Plan a properly lighted study center now...before the new school term. Select a study lamp from our sales floor, where all the lamps are scientifically designed to provide proper light.

Wall lamps provide uniform light over the entire desk top, and leave more space for books and papers. Center the shades 30 inches apart, about 17 inches back from the front of desk. If adjacent wall is dark, hang a light-toned backboard.

Study lamps from $9⁹⁵

ILLINOIS POWER COMPANY

Proper desk lighting promotes good posture, aids eyesight. Ideally, for right-handed students, a lamp should be about 15 inches to left of the papers, and 12 inches from the front edge of desk. Use a 150-watt bulb and proper diffusing bowl. A large pastel or white blotter avoids distracting contrast with lighted books or papers.

He was given a week to get out of the country. Warsaw reported that the reporter was kicked-out because of "tendentious" reporting concerning the strike.

'Ranger' Is Rough and Ready—

A truck that "swims," climbs sand dunes, pulls itself out of holes, drives sideways, reaches out to pick up a load and travels backward at 25 m.p.h. has been unveiled by the U.S. Army Quartermaster Corps. Nicknamed the "Ranger," but officially designated a "rough terrain fork truck," the machine is designed to move military supplies from landing craft to inland points under combat conditions. The Ranger was designed to Army specifications by the Clark Equipment Company. Photos below show the Ranger in operation during a special exercise at Fort Story, Va.

The Ranger can operate in five feet of water. It can traverse surf, climb ramp of landing craft, pick up load and return to the beach.

Ranger picks up load with hydraulic "arms" or forks that reach up, out, down or two feet either side of center. All four wheels turn sideways.

Forks act as built-in jack. If front wheels are mired, forks can be pushed into ground to lift front wheels while rear wheels back away.

He left San Diego on June 29, and averaged around 45 miles a day. Pat, who is on his way to New York, plans to stop over in Cleveland to give a few hopeful words to a nine-year-old nephew, Lee Funk, also a polio victim. He expects to arrive in New York Sept. 5.

Two Run Explosion In Ninth Gives Braves 3-1 Win Over Pirates

A's Win 2nd Straight Shutout, Beat Yanks 1-0

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Tim Thompson singled home Woody Held Tuesday night with the only run of the game as the Kansas City Athletics rode to their second straight shutout, beating the New York Yankees 1-0 behind the pitching of young Ralph Terry.

The shutout was only the second of the season for the Yankees, who had been whitewashed only by Cleveland's Earl Wynn. The Athletics got only two hits off Bob Turley, who had beaten them every time out this year. But with Terry holding doggedly to his lead, the two proved enough. The young A's right-hander struck out seven, getting Terry three times. He was in trouble in the second inning when he hit Bill Skowron with a pitch with one out and singled Gil McDougald on first. Then he wild pitched on a fourth ball to Jerry Coleman and McDougald tried to score from second. Thompson's throw got McDougald by an eyelash and brought a storm of protest from the Yankees. Then Terry struck out Turley to end the inning.

It was the fourth victory of the year for Terry, who was traded by the Yankees to Kansas City in June.

NO ONE HURT IN TRAIN DERAILMENT

KANKAKEE, Ill. (AP)—New York Central official said a damaged switch Tuesday caused derailment of the engine and four cars of the passenger train, James Whitcomb Riley.

No passengers on the Cincinnati to Chicago train were hurt. Railroad spokesmen said it would take about 12 hours to clear debris littering the crossing here. The derailed cars did not tip over.

Passengers were taken by bus to the Illinois Central station.

Sugar Ray Says Fight With Basilio Is Off And He'll Sue IBC

NEW YORK (AP)—Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson said Tuesday he was calling off his scheduled fight with welterweight champion Carmen Basilio and suing the International Boxing Club for breach of contract.

The IBC, sponsor of the fight at Yankee Stadium Sept. 23, replied that "the fight is still on." In a personal telephone call to The Associated Press, Robinson said James Norris, president of the IBC, had failed to fulfill his promise in regard to television and radio commitments.

"Before we signed for the fight it was agreed that we would accept the best television and radio offer, the middleweight champion said. "I have a written agreement with Norris that I must okay any deal on TV and radio that is offered," the middleweight champion said.

From the Basilio training camp at Alexandria Bay, N.Y., a spokesman said Robinson apparently was trying to "squeeze the last drop out of this thing."

Basilio said he would continue training and planned to "step into the ring Sept. 23."

Sugar Ray said Norris told him that he had an offer from Nat Halpern for TV and radio promoting $250,000 seats. This is the maximum for such receipts.

"I told Mr. Norris that this was not agreeable to me," Robinson said. "I told him I had an offer which was better. I made arrangements to see him Monday but I couldn't. Then today I brought in a representative of Teleprompter with a guarantee of 400,000 seats."

"This is $50,000 seats more than Halpern could offer, and in money it would amount to about $300,000 more."

"Mr. Norris told me that it didn't matter. He had done business with Mr. Halpern before and he had already agreed to work with him on this deal."

"I protested. I told Mr. Norris of my contract and the written stipulation. But he wouldn't listen. So I told him the fight is off."

Norris said Robinson talked with Teleprompter representatives Tuesday and said he had a private deal with them for theater TV by which he would get $250,000 for his 45 per cent.

Norris said the most IBC ever had made on theater TV was on the Archie Moore-Rocky Marciano fight which grossed $239,000.

Norris said for Robinson to make $250,000 the net would have to be $560,000 and added: "That's impossible."

Halpern's company is Theater Network Television Inc. Norris said this company already had signed a record number of 159 theaters with a total capacity of 409,000 seats.

California Youth Halfway Leader In Western Golf

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Phil Rodgers, a poised 19-year-old Californian, burned up the tough Old Watson Country Club course with excellent iron play Tuesday for a 3-under-par 68 and the halfway lead in the Western Amateur Golf Tournament's qualifying play.

His 141.1 stroke under par for 36 holes, was two strokes ahead of veteran Curtis Person of Memphis, Tenn.

Play Tuesday reduced the bulky 150-player field to 50 for the final 36 qualifying holes Wednesday.

The top 16 in Wednesday's competition begin match play Thursday for the crown.

Four strokes back at 145 came Edgar Updegraff, 35-year-old former Arizona State champion, and Bob Pratt, 26-year-old University of Houston sophomore.

King Of Amateurs May Take Loss On Title Fight

SEATTLE (AP)—Heavyweight title challenger Pete Rademacher, the king of the amateurs, apparently doesn't know he'll be fighting for a minus $10,000 Thursday night.

He said he believed his fight would result in a monetary profit for Youth Unlimited, the corporation of which he is vice president.

Since he has been in training, Rademacher has read nothing about the fight. Newspapers reaching his camp were censored before they got to him with all stories about the bout scissored away.

Promoter Jack Hurley said the fight at first was expected to gross some $750,000. Then it was decided not to televise or broadcast the scrap, cutting the income down to ticket proceeds alone.

A gross gate of $400,000 is anticipated. Patterson's guarantee of $250,000, underwritten by Rademacher's 22 backers, and the promoter's share of 40 per cent to stage the show leaves the minus $10,000.

That the venture could lose $10,000 or more didn't seem to perturb Mike Jennings of Columbus, Ga., founder and head of Youth Unlimited.

"Pete does the fighting, we handle the business end," said Jennings, when asked about the difference of opinion on money matters. "If we have a loss, that's not his worry."

But the wealthy Jennings added, "All the money involved in this won't walk through the gate."

Youth Unlimited and Patterson will share any receipts from motion pictures of this non-televized bout scheduled for 15 rounds or less.

RICHARDSON, TACKLE FOR EAGLES, LOST FOR 1957 SEASON

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Jesse Richardson, 270-pound veteran tackle of the Philadelphia Eagles in the National Football League, will be lost for the 1957 season as a result of an injury suffered Saturday night in an exhibition game with the Baltimore Colts, the club announced Tuesday.

Richardson suffered torn ligaments of the right knee. He will be operated on Wednesday for removal of cartilage in the right knee.

The big tackle was hurt in a freak accident. In the close line play for the conversion following an Eagles' touchdown, one of Richardson's teammates fell backward on Jess' knee.

CANADIAN DOLLAR CONTINUES TO CLIMB

NEW YORK (AP)—The Canadian dollar climbed Tuesday to a record premium of more than six cents over the U. S. dollar.

Foreign exchange traders quoted the Canadian dollar at $1.061 in terms of U. S. currency, a gain of 3-16 of a cent from Monday's close. Last Thursday the Canadian dollar broke through a record high, which had stood since November 1953.

Traders attribute the latest spurt in the Canadian dollar's value largely to developments in Europe. They report British, French and West German interests have been increasing their investments in Canadian enterprises.

HOLDER OF NUMBER ONE CARD IN LEGION, DIES

BAGLEY, Minn. (AP)—Charles Kibbe, 64, of Bagley, holder of the No. 1 membership card in the American Legion, died in a Bemidji Hospital Sunday.

Funeral services for the veteran, who received card No. 1 in Paris, France, when the legion was organized at the conclusion of World War I, will be held Thursday at Alida Lutheran Church near here. He will be buried in Ft. Snelling Cemetery Friday.

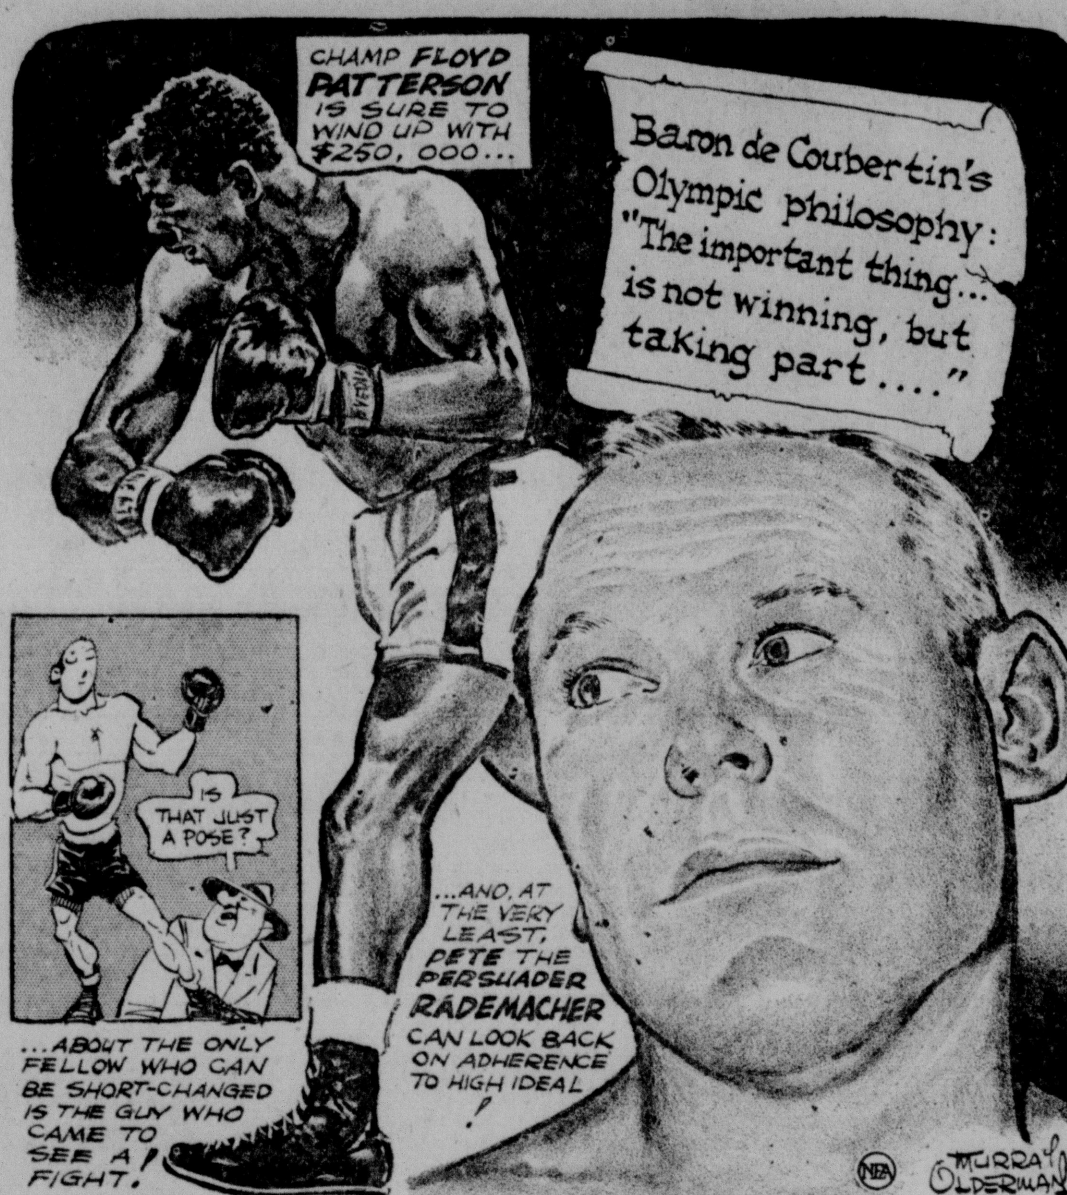

SINGER HARRY BELAFONTE IN HOSPITAL

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Harry Belafonte entered New York Hospital Tuesday for treatment of a retinal detachment of his right eye. The ailment was attributed to a childhood injury.

He is expected to be in the hospital several weeks.

Ned Oldham of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, captain of the Navy football team, led the Middies in ground gaining the last two seasons.

ONE FOR THE MONEY

Keegan Blanks Senators In Second Tilt, 6-0, Chisox Lose Opener, 5-4

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Keegan of the Chicago White Sox pitched the first no-hitter of the major league season Tuesday night, turning back the Washington Senators, 6-0, after the Sox had dropped the first game of a two-night doubleheader, 5-4.

First No-Hitter Since '37 Keegan, 36, from Rochester, N.Y., faced 28 men and gave up two walks. Several defense plays, one by Keegan himself, helped him become the first White Sox pitcher to toss a no-hitter since Bill Dietrich turned the trick in 1937 against St. Louis.

It was also the first no-hitter in Comiskey Park since Bob Feller's effort against the White Sox on opening day of the 1940 season.

Retires First 14 Keegan retired the first 14 men to face him before he walked Lou Berberet with two out in the fifth. Bob Usher then fled to left to end the inning. Another walk came with one out in the sixth to pinch batter Fay Throneberry but Eddie Yost bounced into a double play which was launched by Keegan.

Five Run Rally While Keegan was rolling along, the Sox rallied for five runs in the third inning, climaxed by Larry Doby's two-run homer. Keegan also got into the act. He singled home Chicago's final run in the sixth inning.

The first defense play to aid Keegan came in the first inning when Herbie Plews sent a sure hit into left center but Doby came up with an unbelievable catch.

Brilliant Pickup In the seventh, Plews sent a smash to the mound which Keegan stabbed, fell on, then threw to first for the putout. The crowd of 22,815 was warming up all expectations and really let out with a roar when Nellie Fox made a brilliant pickup of Berberet's grounder and just nipped him at first.

Keegan's first strikeout came in the ninth with one out. He fanned pinch hitter Julio Becquer and ended the game when Eddie Yost fouled to first baseman Walt Drope.

Eighth Victory The victory was Keegan's eighth against six losses. Keegan threw his glove in the air twice after Drope made the final out and was surrounded by teammates who were trying to hoist him to their shoulders.

It was the first no-hitter in the American League since Mel Parnell stopped the Sox at Boston.

REPORTS EVANSVILLE GRANDSTAND UNSAFE FOR LARGE CROWDS

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Evansville appeared Tuesday on the verge of losing its Three I League baseball team.

A group of engineers reported to the city school board Monday that the $500,000, 5,000-seat grandstand is unsafe. An Architect previously had reported the stand hazardous for football crowds but safe for smaller baseball crowds.

Austin Brown, business manager of the Evansville Braves, asserted: "This in my opinion, ends professional baseball in Evansville until adequate facilities can be provided."

There was no indication when the city schools, which rent the field to the Braves, might repair or rebuild the stands.

Temporary bleachers were erected for Monday night's game with Burlington, Iowa, during which Bob Coleman was honored for his 20 years as the Evansville manager.

Rademacher Confident, In Good Condition

SEATTLE (AP)—Heavyweight challenger Pete Rademacher counted some 350 rounds of boxing, bag punching and rope skipping behind him Tuesday as he concluded major preparations for his bash attempt to win the world championship from Floyd Patterson.

This is a considerable number of rounds for a bout that most every critic in the land suspects won't last more than five.

But Rademacher, who won the Olympic Games gold medal last winter and then picked none other than the king of the professionals for his first fight as a pro, remained calm and amazingly confident that a miracle will take place Thursday night in the local baseball park.

The 28-year-old one-time farm boy from Washington, now an adopted son of Columbus, Ga., quietly observed:

"I'm in the best condition of my life. I feel confident about my chances. Otherwise I wouldn't have gone for this match."

Patterson, the 22-year-old stylish hitter from New York, took things easy at his camp at suburban Kent. He completed his serious work Monday.

His manager, cautious Gus D'Amato said his tiger was in top form.

"We certainly won't take any chances with Rademacher," said D'Amato. "You can't take any with a heavy hitter. It may take 10 rounds — or 10 seconds — but we'll get him."

Sports Trail

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The Giants have taken the Giant step, beating the Brooklyn Dodgers to the punch in the guessing game as to which would be the first to commit themselves to move to the West Coast.

Oddly enough, it was the Dodgers who set the fire; who were the first to hint they no longer were happy in Ebbetts Field and were considering packing their luggage and moving out.

They had stuck a tentative toe in the water, you might say, when they scheduled games at Jersey City. That operation was a success, giving them courage to go all the way.

It would be ironic now, and also a dirty trick on the Giants, if the Dodgers decided to stay here, now that the Giants are out of the way and the Bums have the National League territory all to themselves. However, we don't believe that will happen, as it just wouldn't make sense to have only one club on the West Coast. Horace Stoneman must have been assured the Dodgers would go along.

The Giants will be taking their name, their personnel, and their equipment with them to San Francisco, but that is all. The intangibles will remain here, gathering dust and fading in memory until they are only legends.

When a club moves its past is a closed book as far as its new location is concerned. It must start from scratch in the new environment, building its new traditions as the years roll on.

So Christy Mathewson and John McGraw and Bill Terry and the other greats of the Giants forever will remain a part of the New York saga.

It would be a nice touch if they should christen the park to be built for the Giants in San Francisco the Polo Grounds, but perhaps that would make a link to the past which the West Coast fans wouldn't want.

So the Giants move, soon to be followed by that of the Dodgers, marks the end of an era: the end of domination of the major leagues by Eastern and Midwest cities.

It also might be the first step toward formation of a third major league, largely dependent on the success of the clubs in their new locations. If they are highly successful, it will encourage other cities to bid for major league baseball.

Some already are ripe for such bait. The Minneapolis-St. Paul area would seem to be a natural. Houston could support a club, and probably Dallas. Denver is a strong baseball town.

It will take time and planning, but the move of the Giants could be the first step in making major league baseball, not just baseball, really a national game.

Cubs Split Doubleheader With Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chicago and Philadelphia split a two-night doubleheader Tuesday night. The Cubs rebounding to win the nightcap 5-2 helped by home runs by Ernie Banks and Jerry Kindall after the Phillies took the opener 2-1 on Stan Lopata's lead off homer in the 10th inning.

The Cubs, their six game winning streak shattered in the first game, broke a 1-1 deadlock in the fourth inning of the night game when Walt Moryn walked and Banks smashed his 28th homer into the upper left field stands. Kindall followed with another homer and Robin Roberts, who was lifted in the fifth, was saddled with his 17th defeat. He has won eight.

Chicago started Jim Brosnan against Roberts in the nightcap, but the right-hander was forced to retire when he hurt his right shoulder in a 4-2 lead. Don Elston came in and checked the Phillies for the rest of the game to post his fourth victory.

PETER TRILLO ELECTED SADDEST SACK

BOSTON (AP)—Peter P. Trillo of 1419 Van Wie St., Rockford, Ill., Tuesday was elected Saddest Sack (president) of the Sad Sacks, fun-making arm of the American Veterans of World War II and Korea.

The election highlighted the second day of the Sad Sacks' 11th annual scrimmage (meeting) preceding Thursday's opening of the Amvet's 13 national convention.

Five players who were on the Milwaukee Braves' roster last spring played with their Atlanta farm club this season. They are Corky Valentine, Sam Taylor, Joe Morgan, Clarence Riddle and Ev Jorgensen.

Cardinals Defeat Giants, 4-3 And 3-2, Trail Braves By Six

NEW YORK (AP)—The second-place St. Louis Cardinals scored all but one of their runs with four homers, two by Stan Musial who was 5-for-7, as the Red Birds swept a two-night doubleheader from the New York Giants 4-3 and 3-2 Tuesday night while running their winning streak to four games.

The Cards picked up half a game and now trail first-place Milwaukee, a 3-1 winner at Pittsburgh, by six games.

Musial, adding six points that put his league-leading batting average at .339, walloped a first-inning solo shot in the opener, then hauled the Cards from behind with his two-run, 28th homer in the nightcap sixth.

Eddie Kasko's first major league homer, a two-run swat, broke a two-all tie in the first game's fourth inning for the Redbirds. Walter Cooper tripled with one out in the nightcap's ninth and scored on a single by Don Blasingame for a 3-1 lead before Daryl Spencer tagged bonus kid Von McDaniel for a home run in the Giant Ninth.

Tigers Coast To Easy 5-1 Win Over Orioles

DETROIT (AP)—Jim Bunning received early betting support from his Detroit Tigers mate Tuesday night and coasted to a 5-1 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles in the opener of a three-game series.

The Tigers slammed Skinny Brown for five runs in the first three innings. First baseman Ray Boone accounted for three of them with his 11th home run and a triple.

The Orioles had to settle for an unearned run off Bunning in the first inning as a result of third baseman Jim Fingian's error. Tito Francona, who had three of the Orioles' seven hits, singled home the run.

Bunning did not walk a batter as he ran his record to 15 victories against only five losses. Baltimore 100 000 000-1 7 1 Detroit 203 000 005-5 1 1 Brown, Ceccarelli (7) and Triandos; Bunning and House. Home run—Detroit, Boone.

ITALIAN ADMIRAL WASHED OVERBOARD

ROME (AP)—Vice Adm. Marco Calamati, 55, former naval chief of staff, was washed overboard Monday in a storm which struck a small Italian naval yacht 25 miles northwest of Sardinia.

He was a brother of Capt. Piero Calamati, master of the ill-fated Doria. The Andrea Doria was sunk in a collision with the liner Stockholm in the North Atlantic 13 months ago.

The Defense Ministry said the admiral was washed from the deck when a large wave swept over the yacht, Article II. The yacht was en route from Italy to the Balearic Islands.

Dick Mayer, National Open golf champion, had four birdies and 14 pars in his final round 68 when he won the World tournament and first prize of $50,000 in Chicago.

Tedious Legal Work Must Be Completed Before Giants Move

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—They plan to move a hill to make a new home for the Giants baseball team in San Francisco, but they must move a mountain of legislative papers before the first drive.

While city officials and sports writers expressed jubilation over the "we're coming in 1958" word received Monday from the National League club, the average San Francisco citizen was admittedly taking the whole thing calmly.

Some writers said the lack of dancing in the streets was attributable to the fact that the move has been discussed for months, so the announcement was anti-climactic.

However, Sports Editor Jack McDonald of the afternoon Call-Bulletin, said he had received "quite a few calls" from citizens questioning the generosity of the league terms on the to-be-built 45,000-seat stadium.

McDonald said one caller told him "When the mayor signs that lease he ought to wear white whiskers and a red suit."

Principal terms of the lease offer, accepted by Giants President Horace Stoneman, give the city 5 per cent of the gross after taxes and payments to visiting

Long Hitters Take Over Lead In 2nd Round Of Amateur

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Two Ohio golfers and a strong contingent from Washington stole the show Tuesday as the long hitters took over in the second round of the National Women's Amateur Golf Tournament.

Anne Richardson of Columbus, Ohio, slapping her tee shots near the 250 mark, made quick work of Clarice Richardson of Visalia, Calif., 6 and 5. The tall blond was even par on the 38-36-74 Del Paso Country Club course.

Hitting them just as far, Barbara McIntire, 23, of Toledo, disposed of Jane Nelson of Indianapolis 5 and 4.

Anne Quast, an 18-year-old from Marysville, Wash., shot her way into the third round and still hasn't seen the 13th hole. She beat Mrs. Donald E. Weiss of Flint, Mich., 8 and 7. She won her first match Monday 7 and 6.

Joanne Gunderson, also 18, of Seattle, disposed of Florence Minch, daughter of the Del Paso pro, 3 and 2.

Pat Lesser, the 1955 National champion from Seattle, moved in to the third round by default.

INVESTIGATE MURDER

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—A woman returned home from work early Tuesday and found a lifeless form blocking her path. A closer examination showed a knife protruding from the back.

Frankie, she raced 1½ miles to the nearest police station. "A man's been murdered," she blurted out to the desk sergeant.

Two officers find the lifeless form. They roll it over. The face has a peculiar cast. It feels like paper. It is paper—a baby bag stuffed with rags, with a plaid shirt and trousers over a department store dummy.

STAMPEDE AT BLUE SPRINGS
BY GENE OLSON

XXXI
WHEN the wind died and the dust settled, late, I got restless and I left the porch and walked over to the livery. Owen strained up out of the chair and stood there pulling with his fingers on the fat of his cheek.

"You know about the meeting," he asked.
I shook my head.
Owen said, "Commerce Committee. Jordan Peterson sent me word."

"Better keep away," I said. "Better keep your nose out of it."

I went on into the barn and up to the loft. I got my rifle and came down again. Owen looked hard at the rifle. "You rifle?"

I nodded. "It's a new one. United States government gave it to me."

I could see that put me up a notch or two with Owen. I went back to the hotel and sat on the top step of the porch and rubbed the dust off the barrel of the Sharps with my shirt sleeve. I said, "Owen says Peterson called a meeting for tonight."

"Expected that," Blanchard said.
"Want me to look in, like before?"

"No need. They got to work it out themselves."

John McNabb came by just before supper time. He leaned on the porch railing and looked hard at Blanchard. McNabb said, "There's a meeting, marshal."

"I know. Pike found out."

"I been talkin' to Peterson. I think he sees it the right way now."

"That's fine. If it isn't too late."

The meeting lasted half an hour, near as I could tell. Then I saw Jordan Peterson walking north on the boards toward the hotel. When he got close I saw that his eyebrows were hauled together to make a mess of wrinkles out of his forehead and the ing, make sure it's on solid ground."

"Well, I can't do it, marshal. It wouldn't help, anyway. This doesn't have anything to do with hides, or business. This is something else that I don't understand."

Peterson turned away from the porch and took a few steps north.

Peterson walked off slow with his head down and rounded the corner heading toward the tracks. I never thought I'd see the day that I felt a little sorry for Jordan Peterson but I felt that way right then.

"Why, Pike?" Blanchard said. "Why wouldn't people follow Peterson and McNabb?"

"Still scared, Harney."

"Maybe. Then maybe they don't want to mix in any fight."

"Why wouldn't people follow Peterson and McNabb?"

Splain Girl Remains Critical; 3 Others In Wreck Listed Serious

(Special To Journal Courier)

UNION CITY, Tenn.—Miss Patricia Splain, 15, of Jacksonville, Ill., remained in an extremely critical condition Tuesday in Obion County General Hospital here. Miss Splain was injured Saturday night when the automobile in which she was riding with four other teen-agers from Jacksonville and Ashland, Ill., crashed into a bridge abutment.

Miss Splain was scheduled to undergo surgery Tuesday afternoon.

The four others injured in the accident are in Haws Memorial Hospital, Fulton, Ky.

R. L. Buchanan, 18, was able to return to his home in White Hall with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buchanan.

Buchanan's address had been given as Ashland, where he formerly resided and his address was probably obtained from his driver's license.

The condition of Judy Waites, 18, of Jacksonville and Sonny Kendal of Ashland was reported as not good although not necessarily critical.

James W. Trammel, 17, of Jacksonville was reported in good condition.

The accident happened while the five teen-agers were enroute to Hernando, Miss., where Miss Splain and Trammel expected to be married. The others were to be moved to the ceremony.

Miss Splain was said to be suffering from a basal skull fracture, four fractured ribs on the right side, a fracture of the sacrum of the lower left spine and a compound fracture of the left thigh.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Splain of Pittsfield but had been residing in Jacksonville for a short time. Her mother is at her bedside.

Mrs. Dollie McEvers of Jacksonville, Route 3, mother of Miss Judy Waites, is with her daughter in the hospital at Fulton, Ky.

West Side Municipal Parking Lot Favored

Several members of the city council expressed opinion Monday night that if and when another off-street parking area is established, it should be located somewhere in the west side of the business district.

Alderman Clarence Souza introduced the question of another off-street parking lot, such as the city now has on North and South Main streets, east of the square. "I believe we should make an investigation of the possibilities now," he said.

Mayor DuBois said that when the project was discussed some time ago at least one site was available, and probably still is. The area now occupied by the former telephone company building, between West and Morgan streets, has been mentioned frequently as a probable municipal parking lot site.

Alderman Rowe said the Chamber of Commerce parking committee has made an exhaustive study of parking conditions. He suggested that the committee be called into conference for an exchange of ideas.

Second reading of an ordinance levying taxes for general corporate purposes for the current fiscal year was given by Acting Attorney Guy Winks, after which the council promptly passed the measure on motions by Aldermen Souza and Sims.

Final reading also was accorded an ordinance vacating a portion of Lorton street between Beecher avenue and Brook street, in an area owned by MacMurray College. The ordinance moved into law on motions by Aldermen Sims and Tribble.

Alderman Scott called attention to a business building on the north side of the square which he considers dangerous because of old and crumbling masonry near the roof. The mayor and city attorney indicated they will investigate the situation.

Mayor DuBois appointed Wilbur Rogers to the Jacksonville Plan Commission for four years and John W. Larson to the same group for a three year term. Appointments were confirmed on motions of Aldermen Rowe and Fitzsimmons.

These two well known business men were named to the Plan Commission after an amendment to the law several weeks ago, by which the mayor and city attorney surrendered their voting powers. Both remain on the Plan Commission in ex-officio capacity.

Seek Origin Of $40,000 Apple Packing Plant Fire

JERSEYVILLE—Origin of the fire which destroyed the packing plant Sunday at the R. A. Watson Orchard, five miles south of Jerseyville on State Route 67 A, had not been determined up to late Monday evening.

It is thought that defective wiring may have caused the blaze which resulted in damage estimated at between 30 and 40 thousand dollars. Clyde Cox, foreman for the Watson Orchard, discovered the fire, which was already burning with much heat and smoke was emerging from all corners of the building where the wiring was located, giving reason to believe the wiring had caused the fire.

Balloon In Sky Triggers Phone Calls To Journal

The curiosity of Jacksonville residents was aroused Tuesday by a small object floating high in the sky east of town. The small white object which appeared pink toward evening was believed by many to be the same balloon in which an Air Force Major David G. Simons, soared to an altitude of 19 miles.

However, the object continued to glow in the sky near Jacksonville long after the doctor-pilot and his balloon had returned to the earth.

It is believed that the object was a balloon which was launched about 6 a.m. Monday at the University of Chicago.

The University's balloon was described as being 75 feet long and at the top of the atmosphere would be swollen to 42,000 feet in volume. It was launched as part of a cosmic ray research experiment under a government contract. The balloon was launched in Chicago and immediately began a course in a southwesterly direction.

Another balloon was also launched in connection with the same experiment by Dr. Peter Meyer in Prince Albert, Sask.

It is also possible that the object was a mystery balloon which was sighted in Chicago shortly before the launching at the University. This unidentified balloon was also heading southwest.
